FLASHES of HOPE

2015 ANNUAL REPORT

AT THE CENTER OF EVERYTHING WE DO IS A CHILD WITH CANCER

until FLASHES OF HOPE enters the scene!

Our volunteers help children feel like celebrities instead of cancer patients. Stylists carefully apply make-up, often teaching teenage girls how to re-create eyebrows lost to chemotherapy. Music replaces the constant beeping from the IV poles. Once in front of the camera, uncertainty gives way to joyful smiles.

When the families receive the photo packages, their kids don't look sick; instead, the portraits perfectly capture the personalities of their beautiful and courageous children. The portraits are more then just a picture on the wall; they change the way the children see themselves and are especially treasured by families that lose their children.

It is impossible to look at these images and accept the fact that less then 4% of U.S. federal funding goes to childhood cancer research. Each one of our "little stars" inspires us to fund research to find better treatments and cures. Each one deserves the opportunity to create a lifetime of memories.

Thanks to your support, we have provided free photography packages to more than 50,000 children and in 2015 alone, donated one million dollars to research projects across the country.

And while the kids always take center stage in the pages of this annual report, we are honored to put the spotlight on your generosity. Thank you for being superstars to children with cancer!

WITH SINCERE APPRECIATION,
Kip and Allison Clarke
Co-Founders

2015 BIG SHOTS AND LITTLE STARS

Our annual event held in partnership with the Cleveland Cavaliers raised a record 1.1 million dollars. Keybank and Bridgestone Invitational were the event's Presenting Sponsors. In addition to bidding on silent & live auction items, 1,200 guests generously donated $333,000 during the Fund-a-Cure for research projects at the Children's Tumor Foundation.

It was a magical night for our 42 Little Stars and their families. After a private party with visits from mascots and the Scream Team, the girls were presented with custom gowns donated by Catan Fahions and necklaces from Alson Jewelers. The boys were delighted to not only meet their favorite players but take home personalized Cavs jerseys.

Backstage, the Big Shots once again fell in love with their Little Stars who then hit the runway to the energetic cheers of the entire audience.

Thank you for allowing me the privilege of walking the runway. McKenzie stole my heart and I was defenseless! She is beautiful young girl and an endearing soul.

BILL SUMMERS

What a wonderful night. Maddux even told us last night that it was better than his trip to Disney!

2015 SUPERSTARS FOR CHILDREN WITH CANCER

On a beautiful summer night, CHUCK AND MARIA FARRO opened their hearts and home for a Tuscan themed dinner party that raised $40,000.

ROB MACKINLAY has served as our Board President for 3 years and holds an annual Canadian Open golf tournament that has brought in more than $40,000.

The generous support of CURT AND JESSICA McCAMON has a huge impact on the continued success of the Big Shots and Little Stars event.

Inspired by their nephew's battle with cancer, GREGG AND GRETCHEN LEVY are consistently supportive of our mission.

This year, we said goodbye to EDWARD LOZICK who quietly and generously supported Flashes of Hope for ten years. He was admired throughout the community for his philanthropy, sense of adventure and engaging personality.

FLASHES OF HOPE chapters across the country are powered by the compassion of volunteer chapter directors, photographers and stylists. They selflessly give their time and talent at the monthly photo shoots.

Our volunteer driven KICK-IT program raises money for research through corporate events, school games and a partnership with the Jeff Gordon Children's Foundation.

High school football kickers also serve as "Kick-It Champions" by dedicating their seasons to children with cancer. In 2015, more then 100 kickers in 30 states participated and raised $200,000.

LANDON NEALY • Cyprus Christian School , Houston, Texas
Landon was inspired to become a Kick-It Champion after losing his teammate Vincent Salario to cancer. He worked tirelessly to involve his entire community and raised more then $32,000. Landon now travels to speaking engagements on behalf of Kick-It. He plans to continues to be a Kick-It Champion as a college student-athlete while he works toward a degree in medicine.

MARC'S • Marc's, a Northeast Ohio discount drug store and grocery store chain, held a company Kick-It tournament that raised $50,000. They also organized a holiday campaign that brought in an additional $50,000.
